21 April 2023

Dear Parents/Carers

RE: Strike Action Update - Partial Closure of Queen Katharine Academy (QKA) on 27 April 2023

As you will be aware, the National Education Union (NEU) has announced that they will be taking part in industrial action on Thursday 27 April 2023 due to a national dispute with the government around pay and school funding.

I am writing to you to update on arrangements for the day. While predicting the impact of strike action is difficult, we are aware that some of our staff are members of the NEU and are, therefore, likely to strike.

All schools across the country are required to have an appropriate number of staff, based on the number of students, that need to be in school for health and safety reasons and, unfortunately, we are likely to fall below this number.

We, therefore, have no choice but to close to students in Year 7 - 10 on 27 April 2023.

We will, however, remain open as normal for all Year 11 and Post 16 students.

In addition, there will be a provision for Key Worker and Vulnerable Children for all year groups (parents and carers of those students will be contacted separately).

Please complete this link if this facility is required for your child by Tuesday 25 April 2pm.

Students will need to ensure they arrive in full school uniform as usual. Students entitled to Free School Meals will be issued on the day with a voucher sent by email via our provider, Wonde. If you have any queries, please contact Kirsty Cleworth: kirsty.cleworth@qka.education

During their time at home, work for students will be set on Teams in the same way as any home learning, for more information please click this link to the website.

The school will reopen to everyone on Friday 28 April.

I apologise for the disruption these decisions will cause, but I want to assure you that we will always act in the best interests of our students' safety and wellbeing.

Thank you for your patience and understanding during this time.

Yours sincerely

Miss J Driver
Head of School
